"...as a mother of two young boys that I also home schooled, flexibility was key for me. CRAH provided that flexibility. I could put in more hours a week or less hours depending on my schedule. Because of the CRAH training program and Support's help, I am now working professionally as a CART Provider, and I LOVE IT!!!! It is really a dream come true for me! I'm so blessed to have found a career I LOVE!"
- Anna H., CRC, CART Provider, and Mother of two home-schooled boys

"I began my training in high school, and I'm now an RPR!
"The Court Reporting and Captioning at Home Support Staff has been so kind, helpful, and quick to respond. ... I HIGHLY recommend Court Reporting and Captioning at Home to anyone interested in an exciting, productive, and lucrative career as a Realtime Court Reporter, Closed Captioner, or CART Provider."
- Dominique, RPR,

"At 18 years old I became a professional court reporter! My father, who believes very strongly in this court reporting course, purchased the Court Reporting and Captioning at Home program for me my junior year of high school!... "I passed the National Court Reporters Association's Written Knowledge Test while I was still in high school, and then I completed my 225s. At 18 years old I went from being a court reporting student to a professional court reporter. I was employed by a court reporting firm after interning with them for only two weeks." ... "I would not have been able to get where I am today without the Court Reporting and Captioning at Home program and Support Department."
- Chris, RPR, CSR, Court Reporter

"I attended a traditional court reporting school for SEVEN years. I was stuck at 200 wpm for the last two years and finally quit. Utilizing a court reporting speed building practice regimen CRAH developed for me, I was able to complete my" ... "training in three or four months. I am now a broadcast closed captioner captioning 30 hours per week and earn $108,000 per year. Having federal student loans to repay from the traditional court reporting school approximating $50,000, I wish I had found CRAH first. I can't say enough about this wonderful court reporting program, and I would highly recommend it to anyone over a traditional court reporting school."
[UPDATE] "This is the beginning of my fourth year closed captioning, and I have increased my income from $108,000 per year to $180,000 plus per year. It was worth all the hard work, but I couldn't have done it without the Court Reporting and Captioning at Home training program."
- Karrie, Broadcast Captioner
